

Kids and Cultures
Podcaster/Videocaster – Spring/Summer 2010
Internship Description

Assignment

To assist in the direction and production of podcasts or videocasts to educate children about world cultures.

Overview

In 2008-09, Kids and Cultures produced weekly podcasts that also aired on the Kids Cookie Break radio show on FM 90.3 in Lancaster, Pa. This position is being created to develop a similar project of introducing children to various cultural topics. The intern will interview internationals about food, language, celebrations, games, music, geography, and customs, and create short audio/video clips.

See www.KidsAndCultures.com/countryspotlight for samples of the podcast.

Reports to

Timm Wenger, Public Relations and Administrative Coordinator

Duties and Responsibilities

1. To assist in the ideation and planning of the project.
2. To write a treatment and general script for the project.
3. To set up and conduct interviews with people who have grown up in other countries.
4. To edit the material.
5. To obtain permission for use of music and/or images used in the project.
6. To provide the final versions in the format(s) required.
7. To help seek underwriters/sponsors for the project.

Requirements

1. Excellent verbal and written communication skills (English).
2. Experience and training in broadcast communications and filmmaking (directing and producing) and/or audio production.
3. Equipment for audio/video recording and editing.
4. Up-to-date criminal background check.
5. Enthusiasm to learn—and help others to learn—about various cultures.

If interested, send your resume and audio/video samples to tim@KidsAndCultures.com.

For more information, visit www.KidsAndCultures.com or call 717-290-6948.